

Participation Statement

Risks can occur in Rock Climbing that may result in serious injury or death. In the nature of rock climbing, falls are common, which may result in injury despite safety systems in place. When partaking in climbing, you are doing so under your own risk. You must make your own assessment of the risks whenever you climb.

Condition of Participation

The instructor reserves the right to terminate the course if the participants do not follow our Conditions of Participation.

1. General Safety

- You must exercise care, common sense and self-preservation at all times
- You must not climb without all safety equipment in place
- Report to the instructor if you are feeling unwell
- Do not walk or stand in front of belayers
- Do not walk underneath climber

2. Supervising Children

Under 18's must be supervised, 1 adult can supervise 2 children maximum. All children must be over 9 Years old on private sessions and 14 years old on public sessions.

3. Exemption of Climbing

You are not allowed to climb if you:

- Are pregnant
- Are under the influence of drugs
- Have a medical issue or diagnosis that is considered too dangerous for climbing
- Exceed the sizing limitations of our helmets and harnesses

4. Our Duty of Care

We provide Instruction and equipment that keeps you safe during our climbing courses. It is our position to evaluate your safety and act within our knowledge and experience. We will inform you on risks and hazard and manage them appropriately. In the event of an emergency or accident, we are trained to maintain life, future disability and minimize disability.

5. Your Duty of Care

You have a duty of care to maintain your own safety by following our guidance and instruction. You must also act responsibly towards your instructor, other peers of the group and members of the public. If you are supervising a child on our course, you are responsible for their actions and safety. You're to only climb when you are directly supervised by the instructor. If you don't understand our instruction, you must let us know, so we can provide further support.

The skills taught throughout the course must be practised under supervision of a qualified instructor, unless you can prove competency via an assessment at a climbing wall.

6. Belongings

It is your responsibility to look after your belongings, including your vehicle and personal possessions. We are not liable for any loss, theft or damage to your assets.

7. Photography

You are welcome to take photos of your friends and family on our courses, however, you must ask consent of others outside your family if they being photographed.